Organized by : The Institute of Banking Studies - Kuwait

WELCOME

In continuing with our unwavering commitment to the global fight against money laundering and terrorist financing, the Central Bank of Kuwait and the National Committee For Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism take great pleasure in cordially inviting you to participate in the Regional Conference on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism, being held in the State of Kuwait on 2 - 3 December 2007.

Led by a highly qualified international speaker faculty, this two days conference aims to provide a strategic forum for AML/CFT professionals from the State of Kuwait and across the region to gain an understanding of the latest developments and emerging challenges in the fast evolving field of AML/CFT compliance. Your support of and participation in this conference would be greatly appreciated.

We look forward to welcoming you or your representatives at the event.

CONFERENCE INTRODUCTION

Money Laundering activities continue to grow in volume and sophistication across the globe. According to IMF estimates, Money Laundering accounts for 2 - 5 percent of the world's gross domestic product, or between US$ 590 billion and US$ 1.5 trillion per annum. This growing menace not only threatens international security but also compromises the stability, transparency and efficiency of financial systems, thus undermining economic prosperity.

In the aftermath of the events of 11 September 2001 the Middle East Region has made significant strides towards combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing. Criminalizing Money Laundering and creating Financial Intelligence Units are just a few examples of how Kuwait and other countries in the region are building a sound AML/CFT regime.

The emergence of MENAFATF is another sign of the region's resolve to keep pace with and benchmark against international standards.

Despite the progress achieved to date, the ever increasing sophistication of Money Launderers and Terrorist Financer continue to pose complex challenges to the region's financial institutions and regulators.

Against this backdrop the conference on Anti-money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism, being hosted by the Central Bank of Kuwait and the National Committee for AML/CFT brings together leading independent experts from around the world to discuss the latest strategies and best practices in AML/CFT with the region's compliance community.

As an AML/CFT professional, you will leave this conference with not only a thorough understanding of how to detect, investigate and prevent incidents of Money Laundering and Terrorist Finance but will also take away a comprehensive personal skills set that will empower you to use the insights you have gained.

AIMS OF THE CONFERENCE

- Gain independent perspectives on banking and financial industrial issues from some of the world's leading AML/CFT experts
- Obtain critical insights into the latest standards and regulations in AML/CFT compliance
- Explore the state of AML/CFT compliance in the Middle East, the progress made and the challenges that lie ahead
- Learn about Kuwait's resolve and efforts towards combating financial crime
- Identify the latest trends and typologies of money laundering and terrorist financing
- Discover best practices in AML/CFT controls
- Understand the role played by Financial Intelligence Units in AML/CFT
- Meet, network and benchmark with key players in the industry

This is a comprehensive must - attend event for Middle East AML/CFT professionals. Integrating a unique diversity of regional and international perspectives, this forum is your opportunity to ensure that your organization remains at the cutting-edge of AML/CFT compliance .
